Parsons, United States Bankruptcy Judge, United States Bankruptcy Court, Eastern District of Tennessee, on the 13th day of August, 2009. After review of the record and noting no objections to the Motion had been filed, the Court found the Motion to be well taken and should be granted.

4. That, in addition to authorizing the transactions contemplated by the Motion, the Court further finds that: (a) Debbie Saffell is a good-faith purchaser of the Equipment under 11 U.S.C. § 363(m); (b) that the sale of the Equipment to Debbie Saffell does not involve improper conduct, collusion and cannot be avoided under grounds set forth under 11 U.S.C. § 363(n); (c) that all claims of liens and encumbrances including, but not limited to, the claim of Greystone Business Credit II, L.L.C., other secured creditors of the Debtor or other creditors whose claims could act as liens against the Equipment attach to the proceeds of the sale; (d) that upon consummation of the sale of the Equipment as contemplated in the Motion, the Equipment shall be deemed sold to Debbie Saffell free and clear of any such lien, claim or encumbrance; and (e) that the transactions contemplated by the Motion may be consummated immediately upon the signing or filing of this Order and pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6004(g), the sale of the Equipment as contemplated by the Motion shall not be stayed pending the expiration of ten (10) days from the entry of this Order; and
